

WCD Principal Appointed to Governor Chris Christie's Transition Team

Pennington, NJ, January 19, 2010—WCD Group, LLC is pleased to announce that Anthony R. Slimowicz, Esq., Managing Director of WCD Capital Partners, their Brownfields development division, has been appointed to Governor Chris Christie's Department of Environmental Protection Transition Team. To facilitate a successful transition effort, Governor Christie has staffed his transition teams with experts in their respective fields. The Environmental Protection team is charged with reviewing current NJ environmental policies and making recommendations that will create operational and permitting efficiencies, facilitate comprehensive regulatory reform and reestablish the DEP's focus on its core mission of preserving, protecting, and enhancing public health and the environment.

"We are very pleased that the Governor Elect chose Anthony," said Wm. Chip D'Angelo, president and CEO of the WCD Group. "Anthony brings a wealth of knowledge and a practical approach to the balance of environmental protection regulations and development, especially in the area of risk management."

Mr. Slimowicz is a co-founding member of WCD Capital Partners, LLC, a group actively involved in contaminated property re-development by providing targeted solutions for real estate acquisition, investment, development, and remediation management. He is a well regarded legal, insurance, and financial executive with over 19 years of industry experience.

Mr. Slimowicz received his Juris Doctor degree from Quinnipiac University and his BS degree from Seton Hall University. He is a member of both the New Jersey Bar and the District of Columbia Bar.
